Madame Dreyfus More Cheerful.

Madame Dreyfus, on leaving the prison yesterday, appeared in much better spirits

It was evident that her conversation with her husband had been of a more cheerful nature. A large crowd had gathered, in the hope of witnessing her arrival and departure, but the gendarmes cleared the streets adjacent to the prison, and the spectators caught only a passing glimpse of her, as she drove rapidly in a closed carriage to the residence of Madame Godard

The latter left the house today and took up quarters temporarily at the residence of a relative in another part of the town, in order to allow the Dreyfus family full free-

Schedule in effect May 7, 1800 Advertising Made His Success Mr. Bonner was probably the originator of the modern system of advertising. This But before establishing this paper he was the owner of a commercial paper. In an interview, Mr. Bonner gave an interesting account of his methods. He said:

"In regard to my system of advertising, I learned, in the first place, that the ordi-nary method of advertising: Mr. Brown begs leave to respectfully call your attention to a well selected assortment, etc., was not advertising at all. You must call attention to your business in some marked and peculiar way. So I would frame a small advertisement announcing a new story by Mrs. Southworth. I would make that no longer than an ordinary adver-tisement and repeat it over and over again on an entire page of a newspaper. People soon began to talk about that. Then I would take two pages and do the same

"When I began to advertise one page some people would say: 'Oh, that is throwing money away!' Others, again, would

'Oh, he knows what he is about.' say: 'Oh, he knows what he is about.'
When I advertised two pages some of my acquaintances would shake their heads gravely. When I advertised four pages in some of the dailies my friends were inclined to give me up. Finally, when I took the whole Herald (for it was an eightpage sheet at the time) people the I had become daft sure enough."

TO RAISE FREIGHT RATES.

Conference for the Purpose in Chieago Accomplishes but Little. Presidents and executive officers of the Central Freight Association roads gathered at Chicago in force yesterday to discuss ways and means for improving the present demoralized freight rate situation. Beyond appointing two committees to deal with grain rates, the meeting accomplished little One committee was appointed to consider the rates on all commodities except grain, which was referred to another committee of lines leading out of Chicago, Peoria and

St. Louis.

The general meeting of the freight and traffic men was in session all day, and it was agreed by all the lines that rates ought to be put on a higher basis as soon as possible. But just as to what the in-crease should be there were many differ-ences of opinion, and this part of the question will probably be left to the president's committees. The whole matter will be settled at tomorrow's meeting.

COMMITTED FOR EXTRADITION. C. H. Forbes Lindsny, Well Known

Here, Held at Bow Street.

In the Bow Street police court, London, yesterday, Charles H. Forbes Lindsay of Philadelphia, charged by the Philadelphia agents of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York with embezzling $1,411, was committed for extradition. Advertising and Libel Laws. The National Editorial Association, in session at Portland, Ore., yesterday received a report from the committee on reports of officers indorsing the opinion expressed by President McCabe on the subject of advertising agents, and recommending that no commissions be allowed, but that agents be required to collect from adwertisers.

W. L. Eaton of Rockford, Ill., read a paper on "Libel Laws," urging that they should be made uniform in the various states. S. N. Cragen of Indiana presented a paper on "Union Job Printing as a Source of Revenue."
